ROOSEVELT, FAIRBANKS.

Republican National Ticket Was Selected Without a Dissenting Vote by the Convention.

THE SECOND TIME IN HISTORY.

Ex-Gov. Black Placed the Name of Theodore Roosevelt in Nomination For President.

Senator Dolliver, of Iowa, Nominated Senator Charles W. Fairbanks, of Indiana, For Vice President of the United States.

Chicago, June 24.—The swift, sure current of public opinion for the second time in the history of republican conventions Thursday resulted in the selection of a national ticket without a dissenting vote. Theodore Roosevelt for president and Charles W. Fairbanks for vice president received every vote in the convention.

Regardless of the fact that the nomination of one had been assured for months and the other for days, the announcement of the choice was accompanied by a resounding demonstration which attested the candidates the universal popularity. The cheering was led by figures known through the breadth of the land and echoed by a mighty throng of enthusiastic men and radiant women assembled in the Coliseum to witness the crowning feature as well as the close of the national convention that marks the semi-centennial of the republican party in the United States.

Convention Called to Order.

It was 10:30 o'clock when Speaker Cannon called the convention to order. Without preliminaries of any kind he announced the order of the day and instructed the secretary to call the roll for nominations for president.

By agreement, Alabama, the first state on the roll, yielded to New York.
That was the signal for the first outburst of applause. In the midst of the cheering former Gov. Black made his way to the platform. Speaker Cannon took him to the front and characteristically introduced him to the audience.

Mr. Black entertained his audience by a discussion of party principles.
He compared republican standards with those of other parties. With his keen sense of humor and the deep thought displayed in his address the orator fascinated always and frequently electrified his listeners.

ROOSEVELT NOMINATED.

The New York Delegation Led in the Cheering That Followed.

He led up to the nomination gradually by defining the type of man best suited for the party color-bearer. As he named Theodore Roosevelt as the best example of that type the convention rose. The New York delegation led in the cheering which almost immediately spread to every part of the floor, to the galleries and to the crowds which filled the entrances and overflowed into the streets.

While the demonstration was at its height Chairman Cannon stepped to the front of the stage. He held in his hand the banner which was waved in 1860 when Lincoln was nominated and which has been used in every convention since. The flag showed the wear and tear of many similar contests.
"Uncle Joe" waved it vigorously and kept time with his body. Soon the whole convention was swaying in exact measure.

The delegates in their eagerness to exhibit approval of the man accepted every signal for renewed cheering. A little colored boy from Georgia and later a pretty little girl, dressed in a dainty frock of white, were lifted to the platform and they waved flags with as much vigor as their more lusty preceptor.

Crowd Yelled Itself Hoarse.

After the crowd had yelled itself hoarse it permitted the band to participate in the demonstration. The leader chose patriotic music and the familiar words were taken up by the convention and sung with earnestness.
The band changed into rag time and the convention found cheering was better timed to the music.

Senator Beveridge was recognized by the chair for the purpose of seconding the nomination of Mr. Roosevelt for president. He was followed by George A. Knight, of California; Stillwell Edwards, of Georgia; Ex-Gov. Bradley, of Kentucky; Joseph B.
Cotton, of Minnesota; and Harry S.
Cummings, of Maryland. The latter is one of the colored delegates.

SENATOR FAIRBANKS, NOMINEE FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

The roll was called and the unanimous vote of delegations recorded for Mr. Roosevelt without incident until the name of New Jersey was reached.
New Jersey asked unanimous consent that the roll be dispensed with and that the secretary of the convention be instructed to cast the entire vote for Mr. Roosevelt. The objection was general and every state accepted the opportunity of casting its entire vote for the president.

Pandemonium broke loose again when Speaker Cannon announced that in the convention there were 994 votes and 994 had been cast for Roosevelt.
A great picture of the president was carried about through the hall. It was followed by a banner carried by the Oregon delegation, bearing the words:
"First Gun, Oregon 23,804. Roosevelt, Forty per cent. Republican Gain."

FAIRBANKS' NOMINATION.

All Candidates For Complimentary Votes Had Been Withdrawn.

Alabama again yielded its place at the head of the list when the roll call was started for nominations for vice president. The rank was this time given to Iowa and Senator Dolliver, taking the platform, named Senator Fairbanks. The speech was an eloquent endorsement of the candidate's qualifications and was received with tremendous applause. Seconding speeches were made by Senator Depew, Senator Foraker, Gov. Pennypacker, of Pennsylvania, and Thomas Carter, of Montana. All were applauded to the echo and the great popular demonstration which greeted the unanimous nomination by the convention was an enthusiastic tribute to the Indiana statesman whose name was thus joined with Roosevelt.

When Illinois, Nebraska, Missouri and Georgia were called announcement was made that the candidates of favorite sons had been withdrawn.
The entire vote therefore was cast for Senator Fairbanks.

The Usual Resolutions Adopted.

The usual resolutions of thanks to officers of the convention and to committees on arrangement were adopted and the great body was adjourned.

Speaker Cannon came in for one of the resolutions and he blushed like a schoolboy as the word bouquet was given him. He made 11 speeches during the day, each a few crisp, original sentences introducing the 11 orators.
His audience never tired of watching nor hearing him. He was as saucy to the proceedings. His jerky walk to and from the peninsula of rostrum that projected into the audience amused every one. He kept a tight hold on the right hand of each speaker with his right hand and swung the gavel in his left. The wide sweep of the heavy mallet rather terrified members of the press, who were within range for some times their heads escaped by not more than an inch.

While Speaker Cannon spoke his whole body shook, his left arm made full circles, both legs vibrated and even his toes could be seen working up and down in his shoes. His control of the convention was complete.

To Build Electric Lines.

Lexington, Ky., June 24.—J. B. Haggin, the well-known turfman, is behind a scheme to build electric interurban roads connecting surrounding towns with Lexington at an expense of $2,000,000.

JAPANESE FLOTILLA.

It Made a Reconnaissance in the Vicinity of Port Arthur.

Chicago, June 24.—A special from Che Foo says: Reconnaissance in force of the approaches to Port Arthur was made by a Japanese flotilla of three destroyers and four torpedo boats, which ran in from the east about noon and cruised along the whole bluff, coming out past Laotieshan promontory. As the flotilla steamed along it was heavily engaged with the forts, but apparently suffered no damage, although a signal mace of one of the torpedo boats was knocked out of shape as if struck by a shell.
The operation was backed at some distance by two cruisers, one of which appeared to be the Yakuma, while an auxiliary cruiser, an old San Francisco liner, the Nippon, or a sister ship, acted as sea scout in the rear. Shortly afterward heavy firing began on the land side, lasting intermittently until dark.

THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

At Their Meeting George B. Cortelyou Was Elected Chairman.

Chicago, June 24.—George B. Cortel-you was chosen chairman of the republican national committee at a meeting held Thursday just after the adjournment of the convention.

In thanking the committee for the honor, he told the members that while he would be glad to have the benefit of their advice and counsel, he intended to be chairman in fact and would accept no dictation from anyone, high or low. He told them that the friends of the late chairman, Mr.
Hanna, were his friends and he asked for the same measure of confidence and support that had been given to the last chairman.

A resolution of thanks was voted to the old committee and the committee adjourned to meet upon the call of the chairman.

SUPERIOR ARTILLERY.

To It Is Attributed the Success of the Japanese at Vafangow.

St. Petersburg, June 24.—A leading Russian military expert revising the losses of the battle of Vafangow, attributes the Japanese success to superior artillery and prophesies that the issue of future battles will be favorable to the side which places the most guns in the field, a superiority of one-third being sufficient to assure victory. He declares that Gen. Stakelberg's mission was to test the strength of the Japanese forces and that the lessons learned at Vafangow are not likely to be lost on Gen. Kuropatkin.

A FATAL FALL.

Commander A. G. Kellogg, U. S. N., Killed in Portsmouth, Va.

Norfolk, Va., June 24.—Commander A. G. Kellogg, U. S. N., fell from a fourth-story window in the Monroe hotel, in Portsmouth at 9 o'clock Thursday night to the sidewalk below, sustaining injuries from which he died an hour later at the Naval hospital.

He had been in bad health for some time. It is thought Commander Kellogg, during an attack of vertigo lost his balance and fell from the window at which he was sitting.

SHOT FROM AMBUSH.

Mack White Fatally Wounded While Hoing Corn.

Jackson, Ky., June 24.—Mack White was shot from ambush three miles from here Thursday morning while hoing corn in his field. The bullet entered his back. He will die. The boys working with him carried him to a shade and summoned assistance. No clue to the assassins. About a year ago he was the chief witness against Rob Chaney for killing Chad Salyer, for which Chaney was convicted. The sheriff sent for bloodhounds.

Reriah Huggins was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary for killing Sam Fugate, and John Hensly to 12 years for killing Bud Spicer.

IN A MATTRESS.

Bride Found Gold Hidden By Groom's Dead Wife.

Louisville, Ky., June 24.—While the home of Martin Goss, 904 West Front street, Jeffersonville, was being prepared for the reception of a new mistress, $200 in gold was found secreted in a bed mattress, the money having been placed there by his first wife, who died some two years ago without mentioning the fact that she had laid the coin aside. Mr. Goss is a wholesale dealer in meats. It was a habit for him to give her all the gold he had taken in during the day on his trip over the city.

put on end and was climbing to a window when he was seen by Jailer Sam F. Jones.

Murfreesboro, where he lost a limb.

General Hayes Thursday held in a written opinion to Auditor Hager that the act appropriating $10,000 to the Kentucky children's home society, passed by the last legislature, is unconstitutional.

Child's Life Crushed Out.

Covington, Ky., June 24.—Weary from playing in the dust of the streets, Jimmie Kiley, a curly-headed boy of 3, sought a shady spot to take a nap.
A heavily loaded ice wagon came along, ran over the child and crushed out his life.

Legislate Against Ball Playing.

Newport, Ky., June 24.—An ordinance prohibiting ball playing in the streets and public places of the city was presented at the meeting of the board of aldermen. A violation of the ordinance is made punishable upon conviction.

The Girl Disappeared.

and with her a horse and buggy belonging to A. P. Hill, a liveryman.
A strange young man called upon the dwelling occupied by Nathan Schoerer was burned. Mrs. Schoerer was badly burned before she could be taken from the building and died from her injuries in a few hours.

LIFE PRESERVERS.

Those on Board the Ill-Fated Steamer Gen. Slocum Were Practically Useless.

SOME OF THEM FELL TO PIECES.

One Witness Said That When He Took Hold of Them They Crumbled Like Crackers.

The Hull of the Vessel Was Raised Thursday—A Search For Bodies Was Made But None Was Recovered.

New York, June 24.—Much of the testimony at the inquest Thursday into the General Slocum disaster went to show that the life preservers on the steamer were practically useless.
At least half a dozen witnesses described how difficult these life preservers were to get at, and how they fell to pieces at critical times. Paul Lilbenow, a passenger of the General Slocum, who has lost six members of his family in the disaster, declared that when the wires by which the preservers were secured in the racks would not give, he took hold of the preservers and they crumbled like so many soda crackers.

Capt. Van Schaick was brought into the court room on a stretcher. He apparently was suffering greatly, but expressed a willingness to undergo an examination by the coroner. He was ordered back to the hospital, however, and his examination postponed until next week.

The hull of the wrecked General Slocum was raised Thursday, and a great deal of water was pumped out of hold. A search was made for bodies, but none was recovered. At the next full tide the hull will be taken further inshore. Supervising Inspector Rodie, of the United States steamboat inspection bureau, picked up a number of life preservers on the main deck of the General Slocum and tagged them for use in the government investigation.
These preservers were badly torn and more than half filled with powdered cork.

Twenty-four additional bodies were recovered Thursday, bringing the total number of known dead up to 907. One hundred policemen, who have been making a canvass of all districts where persons were reported to be missing, completed their work tonight. Inspector Schmittberger, who was in charge of the canvass, estimated the total number of dead, including the missing, at about 1,000. He said that the police, in many instances, found at their homes persons who have been officially missing since the day the steamer was burned. In one case a man, his wife and two children, whose names had appeared in all the published lists of missing, were found at their home.
They had not been on the excursion at all, and the elders were not even aware that they had been reported missing.
Others among the "missing" were found at hospitals and at various other places.

Other Persons Injured.

Knoxville, Tenn., June 24.—A Louisville & Nashville construction train was wrecked Thursday between Sax-ton and Jellico, on the Knoxville division of the road. A caboose carrying a number of members of the crew was derailed, turned over and rolled down an embankment. Two Negroes were killed outright and seven were hurt, some seriously. The only white man who figured in the wreck was Irving Cheving, Livingston, Ky., both arms broken.

Denver, Col., June 24.—Emil L.
Johnson, a miner who was deported from Cripple Creek by the military,

Some of Our People Have Learned How to Get Rid of Both.

Backache and kidney ache are twin brothers.

You can't separate them

And you can't get rid of the backache until you cure the kidney ache.

If the kidneys are well and strong the rest of the system is pretty sure to be in vigorous health.

Doan's Kidney Pills make strong, healthy kidneys.

Mrs. E. J. Thompson, of 911 East Second street, says: "Mr. Thompson procured Doan's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Market streets and speak in high praise of their curative powers. Entire exemption from suffering from backache is something so entirely unusual that a remedy which acts so promptly and effectively as did Doan's Kidney Pills is a most desirable one of which to know."
